I am not against government churches law the establishment these are things that man has started and man has not finished you and i know that he will finish this sort of activity sooner or later such immense activiu00acties are not cut off in a day but come through a long process of modification until they are either no longer recognizable or are completely replaced by some broad concept that completely replaces the former smaller concept

Well we digressed a bit there these young revolutionaries have an attitude that is spawned by a reaction to the unknown power of spirit they say that man was created in god s image but somehow man has thought and has done everything that he can to prove that god is very limited or seemingly god is created and operates in man s ignorance and limitations

Our planetary teacher said that god is nearer to us than our right hand there it is stop looking start using well how do i do that these young people must realize that their attitudes are a misdirected use of the life force they have been looking and some sense tells them of the presence of some god or super force of some kind that is directing all of this they just can t see him for the smoke the confusion

These same individuals who started using drugs many centuries ago as tribal ritual or by having them administered by the medicine man have not finished the habit by further experience and realization as a side remark so many of our drug administering and drug using medical men are those tribal medicine men of yesteryear Should these young people decide to integrate their consciousnesses and see these beginnings and experiences then the realization comes quickly during the inteu00acgrated state and they are finished with drugs
